ADJUSTMENT TO SUPERVISION: Directly following the above sentencing, the defendant's supervision was transferred to the District of Maryland. According to Adelle Awkward, United States Probation Officer with the District of Maryland, the defendant completed his fourteen (14) days of home confinement, he completed 20 hours of substance abuse treatment, and he has reported for all scheduled appointments. On September 17, 2016, the defendant paid all of the court-ordered monetary penalties in full. He is currently participating in mental health counseling with Frances James at FAJ, Inc., and is employed full-time as a Pharmacy Technician while maintaining enrollment at Howard University.

On December 6, 2016, the defendant appeared before Your Honor on a petition which alleged that on September 24, 2016, the defendant was charged with Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol or a Drug; Operating a Vehicle While Impaired; and No Permit (16-CTF-1556) in D.C. Superior Court. On that date, the defendant was continued on supervision with a modified condition that he undergoes alcohol remote testing as directed by the probation officer and the defendant must comply with an interlock ignition device.

On March 15, 2017, an Addendum to the Petition was submitted to the Court alleging that the defendant tested positive for alcohol on multiple occasions.

On June 20, 2017, the defendant appeared before Your Honor for a status conference on the aforementioned charge in D.C. Superior Court. His case was continued pending the outcome of this case. The Court added a condition that the defendant may not drink alcohol at all, and may be subject to alcohol testing at the discretion of the probation officer.

Re: WRIGHT, Justin A.

On March 28, 2018, a No Action Recommendation was submitted to the Court alleging that the defendant was arrested on February 24, 2018, by Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Police for Unlawful Entry. The charge was No Papered resulting in no formal charges being filed. On that same date, Your Honor approved the no action recommendations.

VIOLATIONS: The following violation is submitted for the Court's consideration.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS:

"THE DEFENDANT SHALL NOT COMMIT
ANOTHER FEDERAL, STATE, OR LOCAL CRIME."

On March 5, 2018, a Prince George's County Police Officer was dispatched to Fountain Park Apartments on a complaint of disorderly conduct. Upon arriving at the apartment, it was reported that the defendant was being disruptive in the basement near the laundry room. It was reported that the defendant was cussing and threatening to kill someone. He was also knocking on his neighbor's door. The officer then went to the defendant's apartment to check on him. Upon opening the door, the defendant proceeded to curse and ask why the officers were there. After a brief interview, the defendant lunged at the police officer, at which time he was placed in handcuffs and detained. The officer then checked the apartment to see if anyone else was there and to discuss this incident with the defendant. Moments later, the defendant was released from the handcuffs and ordered to discontinue being disruptive and disorderly. Once the officers were exiting the residence, the defendant struck one of the officers on the left side of his head causing pain. He was again arrested and handcuffed. The defendant was charged with Disobeying a Lawful Order, Assaulting a Police Officer and Disorderly Conduct.

The defendant appeared before Prince George's County District Court on the same date, and was released on $2,000 bond. His next appearance before Prince George's County District Court is scheduled for trial on June 11, 2108 (1E00658477).
